

Programme Specific Outcomes

B.A.(ENGLISH)

On completion of B.A. English, students will

- Occupy basic knowledge of History of England.
- Possess basic knowledge of English as Language.
- Use correct English in oral as well as written form.
- Demonstrate core academic knowledge of a range of literary texts from the medieval period to the present day
- Study English Literary books critically.
- Understand relation between pleasure of literature and real life.
- Identify relation between English literature and other literatures
- Identify and use key concepts and theories in literary criticism to interpret literary texts
- Distinguish different linguistic concepts and terms

B. A. HINDI

After completion of B. A. Hindi student will able to

- Develop Attitude of Literary Forms. (Hindi Poetry & Fiction)
- Develop Reading, Writing & Communication Skills of Students.
- Get information about the history of ancient, medieval and modern Hindi Literature.
- Learn the literary works on the basis of the foundation laid by the scholars.
- Get information about Literary Theory.
- Develop Approach of Hindi Linguistics & Grammar

B.A. Gujarati

On completion of B.A. Gujarati, students will

- Get acquainted to the rich heritage of Gujarati language
- Be able to face competitive exams through a detailed study of literature and grammar
- Understand and imbibe human values through detailed study of literature

- Develop sensitivity towards human problems
- Lead towards self-employability through the jobs activities like Writing, Reading, Criticism, Proof reading, Teaching at various levels etc.
- Develop the skill of oratory

B.A. History

On completion of the BA (History) special, students will be able to

- Understand the basic themes, concepts, chronology and the Scope of Indian History.
- Acquaint with range of issues related to Indian History that span distinct eras.
- Understand the history of countries other than India with comparative approach.
- Think and argue historically and critically in writing and discussion.
- Prepare for various types of Competitive Examinations
- Critically recognise the Social, Political, Economic and Cultural aspects of History.

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY

- Students will attain a knowledge base in Psychology.
- Students will demonstrate ability to apply academic skills to field of psychology.
- Students will develop skills in scientific inquiry and critical thinking.
- Students will show enhanced personal development.
- Students will advance their professional development.

Department of Economics

- Understand the economic issues and problems faced by individuals, organizations and society, the economic principles that help explain behavior and the range of institutions that affect the allocation of resources.
- Be able to apply methods of economic analysis (such as supply and demand, equilibrium, constrained optimization and dynamic analysis) to behavior and social phenomena.
- Have the ability to employ statistical and econometric methods and software in the analysis of economic data and models.
- Be prepared for advanced study or employment.
- Understanding how different degrees of competition in a market affect pricing and output.
- Understanding the efficiency and equity implications of market interference, including government policy.
- Developing the skill of data collection & use of sampling techniques in research..
- Creating awareness about changing macro-economic policies and theories.

B.A. SOCIOLOGY

- Acquaintance with social transactions, social relations, social formations, social control, social values and culture.
- Knowing the significance of social institution, caste system, religion, nationalism, integrity, equality and justice.
- Getting the knowledge of the works of social reformers all over the nation.
- Ability to follow new stream of thoughts and theories of social thinkers.
- Getting the deep knowledge about various social groups like tribal community, women bulk etc.
- Ability to deal with research in sociology.

श्रद्धावान् लभते ज्ञानं तत्परः संयतेन्द्रियः ।

Prakrit Department (Elective)

On completion of two years of Prakrit Studies, the Students are able to

- Know languages of Ancient Indian literature other than Sanskrit.
- Understand the origin, function and nature of Gujarati & other regional languages .
- Study traditions and life style of Ancient Gujarat and India.
- Develop personality through (good manners) rituals of religious literature.
- Get interested in study of local and languages as a part of linguistic studies.
- Explain the trends and structure of medieval Indian languages.
- Understand the interrelation between literature and society.
- Develop reading, writing, speaking and listening skills.
- Apply critical thinking and the principles of ethical action to important social questions.

DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY (ELECTIVE)

On completion of two years of Geography Studies, The Students are able to

- Students will develop a solid understanding of the concepts of “space,” “place” and “region” and their importance in explaining world affairs.
- Students will be able to locate on a map major physical features, cultural regions, and individual states and urban centers.
- Students will understand global and regional patterns of cultural, political and economic institutions, and their effects on the preservation, use and exploitation of natural resources and landscapes.
- Students will acquire an understanding of and appreciation for the relationship between geography and culture.
- Students will have a general understanding of physical geographic processes, the global distribution of landforms and ecosystems, and the role of the physical environment on human populations.
- Students will have a general understanding of how the physical environment, human societies, and local and global economic systems are integral to the principles of sustainable development.
- At the end of this course students are expected to have a holistic understanding of fundamental concepts of geography and thereby be able to analyze the Interrelationships among them.

M.A. Programme Specific Outcomes

Department of English

On completion of M.A (English), students are able to

- Inculcate openness to and respect for the variety of cultures, religions and political affiliations that they come in contact with
- Understand and learn the literary works on the basis of the foundation laid by the scholars.
- Strengthen their language capacity.
- Assist them in understanding of extended frontiers of language and literature

Department of HINDI

After completion of M. A. Hindi student will able to understand

- Applications of Literature and Language concepts.
- The literary works on the basis of the foundation laid by the scholars.
- The basic need for strengthening the language capacity.
- The latest development of literary works in the world and within the country

Department of Gujarati

On completion of M.A. Gujarati, students will

- Get acquainted with the rich resources of Gujarati language and literature
- Understand and imbibe human values through detailed study of literature
- Learn not only main stream Gujarati literature but also Folk-literature, modern literature, Indian Literature and World literature
- Study multi-disciplinary subjects like literature and cinema, environmental studies, aesthetics etc. along with literature
- Compare Gujarati literature with Indian Literature in General, World Literatures etc.
- Lead towards self-employability through the jobs activities like Writing, Reading, Criticism, Proof reading, Teaching at various levels etc.

Department of Sanskrit

- Students can pursue their career as Teacher in Higher Education after doing M.A., B.ed in Sanskrit Subject.
- Students can go to M.Phil Course after getting 55% in M.A. with Sanskrit.
- Students who are eligible can also pursue their career as Adhoc Lecturer in College.
- Eligible students of Sanskrit subject can appear in NET and GSET Exams.
- They can also pursue Ph.D course after getting eligible marks in M.A..
- They can join Sanskrit Bharati as Trainer.

Department of History

On completion of the MA (History) special, students will be able to

- Understand and evaluate the complexities of historical developments of various nations, societies and cultures.
- Acquaint with research skills, methodologies, philosophy of history and historiography as being a professional historian and researcher.
- Prepare themselves for the competitive carriers in fields like civil services and teaching.
- Recognise history of the man in the context of universal as well as national perspective.
- Learn to evaluate the historical narratives with the approach of comparative methods.
- Think and argue historically and critically.
- Critically analyse the various sources of history.
- Understand Indian history and world history with the scientific, critical and rational approach.
- Understand values of unity in diversity, multiculturalism, multi-religiosity, secularism and humanism which are inherited in Indian Culture and upheld by our Constitution.
- Identify how the Indian culture had been contributed to the world human civilisation through the Ages. DEP

Department of Economics

- Develop in-depth competency in the core areas of microeconomic theory, macroeconomic theory, and applied econometrics.
- Develop additional competency through elective coursework in one field of specialization (popular concentration fields include forecasting, finance, international economics, health economics, and public economics).
- Be able to use economic analysis to solve problems and answer questions that arise in the private and public sectors
- Be able to use common software programs for performing econometric analyses of data.
- Be able to communicate economic reasoning, econometric methods and evidence in a professional setting.
- Prepare to pursue a doctorate in economics (for those students using the MA program as a stepping stone to PhD study)

