Minutes of the Meeting held on 13th October 2023

Agenda:

- Scholarship deposit automation and about the online portal of the Government's Social welfare schemes
- To keep statistical data ready for AISHE/AQAR/NAAC and GSIRF
- To upload results on institute's website
- To maintain cleanliness, safety measures and installation of the fire safety equipments

The following proceedings took place and certain points were discussed in the meeting:

1. The IQAC, following the government policies, instructed the office about collecting data of the bank accounts of students for the direct deposit of scholarship.
2. The IQAC needs to upload AISHE report and AQAR towards the end of the academic year. Therefore, the co-ordinator of the IQAC instructed the office superintendent to keep all the data about the students, results, scholarships, monetary assistance etc. ready.
3. The IQAC suggested the office superintendent to keep the web-site updated with the results of internal exams, necessary instructions for the students, scholarships etc. They insisted that the website should be student-friendly so that they can access it from anywhere.
4. The IQAC instructed the office superintendent to see to it that cleanliness be maintained in the college. The institute believes in the motto, "Cleanliness is Godliness".

The following proceedings took place and certain points were discussed in the meeting:

1. After the registration of the Alumni, the meeting of IQAC with both old and new Alumni began with a prayer by the librarian of the institute, Dr. Ms. Vallariben Hathi. The prayer spread positivity in the large Museum Hall.
2. The Principal and Chairman of IQAC first of all welcomed the Alumni belonging to various departments and different age groups varying from 20 years to senior citizens. There were more than 120 Alumni present on the day. The Principal informed the Alumni about different amenities like well-equipped library, a large play-ground with qualified and successful Physical Director, Women Cell, Well-qualified teaching staff and very competent non-teaching staff, NSS and NCC units, SCOPE Lab, well-equipped classrooms, etc. available in the College.
3. The Principal briefed the Alumni about their role in the progress of the College. The Alumni are one of the stake holders of an institute and they have a very active and creative role to play in the progress of their mother institute. They are also told to come up with some new ideas for the improvement of the institute. They have the right to correct the steps of the institute if they are found wrong.
4. The IQAC co-ordinator suggested the names of Dr. Leelaben M. Swami and Prof. R. L. Revadivala as the President and Secretary respectively of the Alumni Association from 2016-17. All the Alumni present in the hall accepted this suggestion.
5. The IQAC co-ordinator briefed the Alumni about the NAAC council and the role of the Alumni in this assessment. They are insisted to remain present on the required day for NAAC assessment.

- To assign exam duties to different faculties and administrative staff
- To encourage faculties for research activities and innovative social practices
- To consider any other suggestions

The following proceedings took place and certain points were discussed in the meeting:

1. The IQAC noticed that along with taking academic care of the students, the college carried out Blood Group Testing Camp and Thelessemia Check-up camp for the health care of the students.
2. Moreover, all the departments decided to introduce Add-on courses in their respective subject for the benefits of weak students. They have adjusted a separate time-table of add-on course with the regular time-table and started delivering classes accordingly.
3. The IQAC showed its keenness on holding seminars, debates, quiz etc. for students of various departments. The IQAC also emphasised on research activities on the part of both faculties and students. They insisted that in a year every teacher should get minimum 02 articles published in national or international level magazine and also present two research papers at such seminar or conference.
4. The college has its own magazine with ISSN number. The Principal instructed the concerned faculty members to start collecting the articles and go ahead with the publication of College magazine.
5. The IQAC along with the examination committee assigned the examination duties to faculties for local exam as well as university exam. They also invited suggestions from the faculty members for holding examinations in fair manner.

Minutes of the Meeting with Parents held on 21st January 2024

Agenda:

- Welcome of the Parents and Introduction.
- To discuss the role of the Parents in academic progress of the College
- To inform about the facilities in the College
- To brief about the NGES management, faculty members, office-bearers of the institute and Parents' Association
- To brief about NAAC – IQAC and the Government bodies of the Higher Education Agencies.
- To invite suggestions

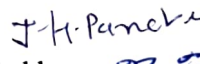

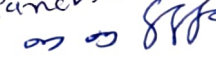

The following proceedings took place and certain points were discussed in the meeting:

1. In response to the instructions given by the Heads of respective departments to the students, more than 90 parents turned up for the meeting with the IQAC. Along with some old members of the Parents' Association, a good number of new members attended the meeting.
2. The meeting of IQAC with the Parents, both old members and new members, began with a prayer by one of our students. It spread positivity in the BISAG HALL.
3. The Principal and Chairman of IQAC first of all welcomed the parents and appreciated their concern for the education of their children. A number of parents in the meeting had been the former students of this institute. The Principal informed the Parents about different amenities like well-equipped library, computer labs with internet facility, a large play-ground with qualified and successful physical director, Women Cell, Well-qualified teaching staff and very competent non-teaching staff, NSS and NCC units, well-equipped classrooms, the newly built Gymnasium Hall, etc. available in the College.
4. The Principal briefed the Parents about their role and contribution in the progress of the College and their wards. The Parents are one of the stake holders of an institute and they have a very active and creative role to play in the progress of the institute. They were also requested to come up with some new ideas for the improvement of the institute. They have the right to correct the steps of the institute if they are found faulty.
5. The IQAC co-ordinator briefed the Parents about the NAAC (council) and the role of the Parents in the assessment of the Council. They were asked to contribute their suggestion for the welfare of the institute and better results for NAAC assessment.
6. The IQAC co-ordinator asked their feeling about the atmosphere provided and care taken of their children in this College. He also invited suggestions from the Parents for some improvement in the functioning of the College.

7. The College got feedback form filled by the Parents so that their responses can be received and necessary measures be taken.
8. At the end of the meeting everybody enjoyed refreshment together.
